

The Shakespearean Authorship Trust

in collaboration with Brunel University present

The 2009 November Gathering for all Authorship Hunter Gatherers:

CHALLENGING AUTHORITY

Mark Rylance & friends, Vanessa Redgrave*, Fiona Shaw*, and Derek Jacobi

recite a selection of Shakespeare's words on Challenging Authority with presentations and discussion of the lives and writings of some of the authors around Shakespeare who also challenge authority:

Sir Francis Bacon
Lady Jane Lumley
Mary Sidney

Christopher Marlowe
Edward de Vere, 17th Earl of Oxford and an introduction to William Hastings

*Subject to availability on the day.

Hosted by Mark Rylance & Dr. William Leahy
with Guest Speakers:

Mrs. Frieda Barker

Mrs. Frieda Barker discusses Marlowe's anti-authoritarian writing and the history of the case for Marlowe as the secret writer of Shakespeare.

Charles Beauclerk & Mark Rylance

SAT Trustees Mark Rylance and Charles Beauclerk deliver two brief talks on the challenge of authority in the lives of Sir Francis Bacon and Edward De Vere, 17th Earl of Oxford.

Robert Nield & Joan Robinson

Robert Nield and Joan Robinson introduce their case for William Hastings.

Claire van Kampen

Claire van Kampen discusses her research into the first English translation of Euripides' play Iphigenia by the teenage Lady Jane Lumley in the 1550s.

Robin Williams

Ms. Robin Williams discusses Mary Sidney's situation as a patron of writers and indeed a woman writer herself, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth and King James.
